Gale Virtual Reference Library: Arts and Humanities Through The Ages

Looking for concise information on:

- Construction of the Egyptian pyramids
- The rise of ballet as a dance form
- A primary source document on the Sumptuary Laws in Renaissance Europe
- Various types of medieval literature – Arthurian romance, troubadours, Scandinavian sagas
- The introduction of polyphonic music
- Pythagoras and the Pythagoreans
- Free will versus predestination in the Dutch Republic
- The Commedia dell'Arte
- The Greek sculptor Praxiteles

These queries represent the diverse topics covered in Arts and Humanities through the Ages from Thomson Gale Publishers. Both the Hawai'i State Library and Pearl City Public Library have this wonderful 5-volume interdisciplinary reference set in hard copy (R700.9AR). The good news is that it is now also available online as part of the Gale Virtual Reference Library. This e-source covers five periods of Western arts and humanities in relation to each other as well as to history and culture. The five periods covered are: 1) Ancient Egypt, 2675 - 332 B.C.E.; 2) Ancient Greece and Rome, 1200 B.C.E.- 476 C.E.; 3) Medieval Europe, 814 - 1450; 4) Renaissance Europe, 1300 – 1600; and 5) Age of the Baroque and Enlightenment, 1600-1800.

Each period is covered in an overview and a chronology of major world events followed by nine sections covering the major arts and humanities: 1) architecture and design, 2) dance, 3) fashion, 4) literature, 5) music, 6) philosophy, 7) religion, 8) theater, and 9) visual arts. Glossaries of relevant terms are included. This is an extremely useful source for student projects.

To access Arts and Humanities through the Ages from your home computer: go to www.librarieshawaii.org; click on Other Databases from the navigation column on the left; scroll down and click on the Gale Virtual Reference Library link; enter your valid library card number and click on proceed; click on Gale Virtual Reference Library; on the next screen, scroll down to Arts, click on view publications; scroll down and click on Arts and Humanities through the Ages; at the next screen, under Quick Search, check the box next to within this publication; type in keywords or personal names in the search window Find: and click on the search button.

You are now set to explore the vast multidisciplinary information available in this source. Gale Virtual Reference Library: Arts and Humanities through the Ages is provided through Federal Library Services and Technology Act funding, which is administered by the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

Libraries to Host Slam Poet Kealoha

By Paul H. Mark

Kealoha, a two-time Wordstew poetry slam champion, will be the featured performer for the HSPLS Young Adult Summer Reading Program at 18 public libraries from June 4 – July 19. Admission is free.

Kealoha

Born and raised in Honolulu, Kealoha is founder of HawaiiSlam, Youth Speaks Hawai'i, and First Thursdays, the largest registered/certified slam poetry competition in the world. Slam poetry combines poetry with the performance arts.

At the 2003 National Poetry Slam in Chicago, Kealoha received national recognition by placing in the top 25 percent of the world's best performance poets. In 2004, he was a San Francisco Grand Slam Finalist.

Kealoha's poetry has been published by Bamboo Ridge, Wordstew, and on Hapa's latest album "Maui" (winner of the Hawai'i Music Award for "Album of the Year"). "Kealoha," his full-length spoken word CD, blends poetry with various genres of music including hip-hop beats, slack key compositions, acoustic soul instrumentals, and melodic vocals.

Kealoha will perform at these libraries: Maui County – June 6: 2:30 p.m. at Wailuku, 6:30 p.m. at Lahaina; June 7: 2:30 p.m. at Kahului, 6:30 p.m. at Makawao; July 11, 10 a.m. at Moloka'i; 'Oahu – June 4, 3 p.m. at Kaimuki; June 16, 10 a.m. at Kahuku; June 17, noon at Hawai'i State Library-Young Adult Section; June 20, 3 p.m. at Waialua;

Top Storytellers to Perform in Hawai'i

By Paul H. Mark

Bobby Norfolk, a three-time Emmy Award-winning storyteller and Sherry Norfolk, an acclaimed storyteller, as well, will be the featured performers for the 2006 HSPLS Children's Summer Reading Program, June 13–23. This husband-and-wife duo will appear separately in free performances statewide at 43 public libraries. The Norfoks last performed in Hawai'i to rave reviews at the 2001 summer reading program.

Bobby

Sherry

Bobby Norfolk, from St. Louis, Mo., is an internationally-known story performer and teaching artist, and one of the nation's most popular and dynamic storytellers. He is a former stand-up comedian who opened shows for Roberta Flack, Peabo Bryson, B.B. King and Lou Rawls. Norfolk won Emmy Awards for his CBS television show "Gator Tales" in St. Louis. His animated, highly-energetic style combines comedy, theatre and mime for an exciting story performance.

Bobby Norfolk will perform "Today's Troubadour" at 20 public libraries: O'ahu - June 13, 6:30 p.m. at Kahuku; June 14, 10:30 a.m. at Wahiawā; June 18, 2:30 p.m. at Kāneohe; June 19: Kapolei at 10:30 a.m., Pearl City at 1:30 p.m.; June 24: Kailua at 10:30 a.m., Liliha at 1 p.m.; Maui County – June 13, 10 a.m. at Moloka'i; June 15: Makawao at 11 a.m., Wailuku at 6:30 p.m.; June 16, 10:30 a.m. at Kihei; June 17, 10 a.m. at Kahului; Kaua'i – June 14, 6:30 p.m. at Waimea; Big Island – June 20: Pahala at 9:30 a.m., Nā'ālehu at 2:30 p.m.; June 21, 3 p.m. at Kailua-Kona; June 22: Honoka'a at 11:30 a.m., Laupāhoehoe at 2 p.m.; June 23: Hilo at 10:30 a.m., and Kea'au at 1:30 p.m.

Sherry Norfolk, from Atlanta, Ga., has been a professional storyteller since 1981. A former librarian and college professor, she uses storytelling as an effective means of motivating children to read. Norfolk's elementary education background influenced her style – full of rhythm and motion, multiple voices and opportunities for audience participation. Her dedication and interest in children's literacy have been recognized with national awards from organizations such as the American Library Association, and the Association for Library Service to Children.

Sherry Norfolk will perform at 23 public libraries: Maui County - June 13, 2 p.m. at Lāna'i; June 17, 11 a.m. at Lahaina; Kaua'i - June 14: Kapa'a at 10:30 a.m., Princeville at 3 p.m.; June 15: Lihue at 10 a.m., Kōloa at 2 p.m., Hanapēpē at 6:30 p.m.; O'ahu – June 16: Kalihi-Pālama at 10:30 a.m., McCully-Mō'ili'ili at 2:30

Paws, Claws, Scales and Tales @ Your Library

By Paul H. Mark

Hey kids, now that summer is here, want to just read for the fun of it? If the answer is yes, visit your local library and sign up for the 2006 Hawai'i State Public Library System Children's Summer Reading Program.

This free, 5-week program will be conducted from June to July at 51 public libraries statewide. Eligible participants are children who will be in preschool to grade 6 in the fall, and adults may read aloud to children, from preschool to grade 2. Participating children are encouraged to build their reading habit by visiting the library once a week, read at least one book per week, and they will receive a free reading incentive, while supplies last.

Paws, Claws, Scales and Tales is this year's theme, which will highlight books and stories about all kinds of animals, such as birds, fish, amphibians, and reptiles.

This program is funded by a grant from major sponsor Hawaiian Telcom (grant administered by the Friends of the Library of Hawai'i), and other long-standing sponsors for summer reading program incentives: McDonald's Restaurants of Hawai'i, Diamond Bakery, First Insurance Company of Hawaii, and the UH-Mānoa Outreach College. In addition, local Friends' chapters are contributing as sponsors to the program.

To register for this reading program, visit any public library and sign up. Throughout the summer, public libraries will also feature special programs and performers, such as Bobby Norfolk, a three-time Emmy Award-winning storyteller and his wife, acclaimed storyteller Sherry Norfolk (see story on front page). Contact your local library for more information.
